

Teacher: Mrs. Lihong Yu

Mrs. Yu graduated from Inner Mongolia University for Nationalities of China in 1993; there she earned herself a Bachelor of Art degree with a major in Teaching and History Education. After graduation, Mrs. Yu taught at the middle school of the China Institute of Atomic Energy (CIAE) for 5 years and had been certified as 'Level-II' Middle School Teacher at CIAE. Her good communications; her diligence, dedication and superior performance has twice led to the title of RACL Excellent Teacher of the year. In 2014, Mrs. Yu has been recognized and awarded for Excellent Oversea Chinese Teacher by the Overseas Chinese Affairs Office of the State Council, one of the highest honors to Chinese language teachers in the United States.

In 2008, Mrs. Yu joined the teaching staff of the Champion Learning Academy (CLA) and since then she had been focusing on CLA's Chinese language classes. Because of her patient, caring and responsible attitudes and her vivid language teaching styles, Mrs. Yu has been regarded by the CLA children as their favorite teacher for years. In addition to language classes, Mrs. Yu also organized several dance and art performances which represented CLA community at NC-CAFA annual celebrations. Performances such as 'Reading Poems of Tang (Dynasty)' and 'Three-Word Chant (San Zi Jing)' that reflects Chinese traditional cultures by CLA students had been well accepted by the audiences at the performances.
